The number of hour of learning and assessment are advised by the Security Licensing and Enforcement Directorate (SLED) for a group class of 10 – 15 students; however approval to reduce the hours of study can be obtained of SLED if the students are less than 10 or if they have already obtained some competencies through other RTO.

This course will be conducted by our Approved Organisations, and our Approved Trainers, in accordance with the requirements outlined in the NSW Security Licence Course Training, Assessment and Instruction Requirements Manual and the Approved Organisation's Conditions of Approval.

Assessment Method

Candidates will be assessed through a range of methods including subject quizzes, case studies, report-writing, open book exams, role-plays and practical assessments throughout the course. Students will not be permitted to talk, or seek assistance from other students while undertaking Exam.

Students may be given one re-attempt at each assessment in which they are found 'Not Yet Competent' during the approved duration of the Course Module. If they are found 'Not Yet Competent' again they must re-sit the whole Course Module, including all learning hours and all assessments, during a subsequent Security Licence course.

First Aid Certificate Requirements

This the requirement of the SLED (Security Licensing and Enforcement Directorate) that the candidates wishing to obtain NSW Security License in class 1B & 1F must also successfully complete training in HLTA311A Apply first aid or HLTAID003 Provide first aid unit of competency prior to applying to the SLED for a security Licence.

Vigil offers HLTAID003 Provide first aid training in other training programs within our Registered Training Organisation (RTO). We do not offer this qualification as part of this course. The students completing HLTAID003 Provide first aid training with our RTO will automatically achieve credit transfer.

Awards

The students will be awarded with statement of attainment from qualification CPP30411 Certificate III in Security Operations and transcript of record.

Students successfully completing NSW security licensing training will also receive a letter from our RTO stating that student has successfully completed the NSW Security Licence Course in accordance with SLED requirements.

Students will receive this Letter, Certificate, record of result and statement of attainment within fifteen working days from the date of completion of the course. A separate $10 charges applies if you want to receive your qualification by post.

Applying for NSW Security License

After successful completion of NSW Security Licensing Training the students will be able to apply for NSW Security License.

Students must include the relevant documents with their licence application while applying for NSW security license corresponding to the licence subclass.

For more details please check the SLED website: http://www.police.nsw.gov.au/services/security_licensing_and_enforcement_directorate/security_licence/applying_for_security_operator_licence

Credit Transfer

Credit transfer is permitted only if a student attained all units of competency contained in a Course Module with a current Approved Organisation in accordance with the SLED regulatory requirements, on or after 1 May 2013.

If a student has attained all units of competency (or their superseded and equivalent units) contained in a Course Module with a current Approved Organisation in accordance with the SLED regulatory requirements, prior to 1 May 2013, they do not have to complete the learning hours, but must undertake and satisfactorily complete all of the assessments for that Course Module.

We can remove the learning hours however credit transfers are not permitted.

If a student attained all units of competency contained in a Course Module with an RTO that is not a current Approved Organisation, they do not have to complete the learning hours, but must undertake and satisfactorily complete all of the assessments for that Course Module. We can remove the learning hours however credit transfers are not permitted.

If a student attained some, but not all, of the units of competency contained in a Course Module with either a current Approved Organisation or an RTO that is not a current Approved Organisation, they must complete all of the learning and all of the assessments for that Course Module. We cannot remove learning hours or provide credit transfers.

For more details contact us on
PH: 0420 844 453 or 02 8677 9062

Recognition of prior Learning (RPL)

Candidates please note that Vigil Training College does not assess student's competencies through RPL in this course. For more details check SLED website.

Pathways

There are several career pathways available to people entering, or already working in, the Security Sector of the property services industry. Each pathway requires specialist training and qualifications which are also linked to licensing requirements.

The students successfully completing Class 1BF Security licensing course will achieve attainment in units of competency from CPP007 Property Training package, these units are also used in other qualifications; candidates seeking to complete those courses can achieve recognition / exemptions in units which they have achieved already.

Attendance Requirements

If a student withdraws from or leaves a course before completion of the suggested learning hours, they are not permitted to undertake assessment tasks of the course. They must re-join a future course to complete the missed learning hours and assessment tasks before being permitted to undertake final assessment.

For students this means that absences from the course will require missing time to be made up at a future course thereby delaying issuance of qualification or statement of attainment and procurement of a security licence.
