

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS POLICY

PURPOSE

Vigil Training College is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015. This policy provides the framework and general principles for complaints and appeals of Vigil Training College.

This policy is based on providing and maintaining training services that are fair and reasonable and afford a forum where issues or inadequacies can be resolved. The Vigil Training College process provides adequate opportunity for complaints and appeals to be forwarded to Vigil Training College management for resolution in a timely, confidential, and sensitive manner. Vigil Training College will ensure that the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness will be adhered to throughout the hearing of all complaints and appeals.

The object of this policy is to ensure that Vigil Training College staff act in a professional manner at all times. This policy provides clients with a clear process to register a complaint. It ensures all parties involved are kept informed of the resulting actions and outcomes.

SCOPE

Vigil Training College acknowledges the student's right to lodge a complaint or appeal when they are dissatisfied with the training and/or assessment services and experiences that they have been provided by Vigil Training College or by a third-party provider (if applicable).

Vigil Training College ensures that clients have access to a fair and equitable process for expressing complaints and appeals, and that Vigil Training College will manage the complaint by implementing principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

With this Vigil Training College ensures that:

1. It has a procedure for collecting and managing complaints and appeals in a constructive, timely, confidential and sensitive manner.
2. These procedures are communicated to all staff, contractors, third party partners and students.
3. Each complaint and appeal and its outcome are recorded in writing.
4. Complainants and appellants are given written statements or communication of the appeal or complaints handling outcomes, including decision and reason for the decision.
5. Outcomes of complaints and appeals are utilised to review to review current practices which may potentially lead to continuous improvement initiatives in order to mitigate the likelihood of the complaints and appeals.

POLICY PRINCIPLES

Complaints and Appeals Policy

1. Details concerning the scope of Vigil Training College Complaints and Appeals Policy are to be clearly displayed throughout the Vigil Training College and contained within the Student Handbook, Staff Handbook and Website.
2. Complaints and appeals are treated seriously and dealt promptly, impartially, sensitively and in confidence.

3. Complaints and Appeals will be resolved on an individual case basis and as the needs arise.
4. All Vigil Training College students have the right to express a concern or problem and/or lodge a formal complaint, at minimal or no cost to the student, if they are dissatisfied with the training and assessment services they have been provided, including through a third party (if applicable) or the behavioural conduct of another learner or Vigil Training College.
5. Vigil Training College supports the right of a student to lodge an appeal, at minimal or no cost to the student, against any assessment decision and will not impair that right in any way. Vigil Training College will do everything possible to address the appeal in an unbiased and professional manner.
6. The Vigil Training College allows all parties involved, where desired, to be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings.
7. In the event that a student lodges a complaint or appeal, the student's enrolment will be retained by the Vigil Training College for as long as the complaints and appeals process is ongoing and unless otherwise invalidated by the result of the complaints and appeals process.
8. The handling of a complaint or appeal is to commence within 10 working days of the lodgement of the complaint or appeal and all reasonable measures are taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable.
9. All complaints and appeals are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable. Vigil Training College will aim to complete the complaints process as quickly as possible and within a total of 30 calendar days. Vigil Training College will keep the learner informed of the progress of the complaint throughout the process by phone communication, email correspondence or face-to-face meeting.
10. If the complaint will take in excess of 60 calendar days to finalise, Vigil Training College will inform the complainant in writing providing the reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required.
11. The Vigil Training College will inform the student of the decision resulting from the lodged complaint or appeal. Where the result of the complaints and appeals process, may be internal or external, arrives in a decision in favour of the student the Vigil Training College will promptly implement any and all corrective actions and preventive measures required.
12. In the event that a student is dissatisfied with the result or conduct of the complaint handling or appeals process of the Vigil Training College, student is advised within 10 working days of concluding the internal review of the complaint of their right to an external complaints and appeals process to be conducted by an independent person or body completely separate from the Vigil Training College.
13. In the event of a suspension or a cancellation of a student's training, he/she will be given 20 working days to initiate an internal appeal, unless his health or wellbeing, or the wellbeing of others, is at risk. The suspension or cancellation will not be official until either the 20-day period has run its course, or the appeals process yielded a result that does not favour the student.
14. If the conclusion of an appeal, whether internal or external, favours a student, the final recommendations of the appeal process will be immediately acted upon.
15. All complaints will be recorded in the Vigil Training College Complaints and Appeals Register. These records including the outcomes will be secured and maintained by Vigil Training College.
16. No Vigil Training College staff shall disclose information to any person without the permission of the Training Manager, a decision to release information to third parties can only be made after the complainant is given permission for this to occur.

Complaints and Appeals Process

1. Vigil Training College adopts the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness at every stage of the complaints and appeals process. Vigil Training College handles and manages all complaints and appeals in accordance with the Complaints Handling Process and Appeals Process document.
2. Students are provided with a clear process to follow in order to lodge a complaint or an appeal. All parties involved will be kept informed of the resulting actions and outcomes.
3. If a student has a complaint, they are encouraged to speak immediately with the trainer / assessor to resolve the issue. If the complainant is not satisfied that the issue has been resolved they will be asked to complete the Complainants Form, to lodge a formal complaint.
4. The complainant resolution procedure is based on the understanding that no action will be taken without consulting the complainant and respondent, using a process of discussion, cooperation and conciliation. The rights of the complainant and respondent will be acknowledged and protected throughout the complaint resolution process, including the conduct of separate interviews initially.

5. In the interest of confidentiality, the number of people involved in the resolution process will be kept to a minimum. All complaints will be handled as Staff-In-Confidence and will not affect or bias the progress of the client in any current or future training.
6. Final decisions will be made by the Training Manager of Vigil Training College or an independent party to the complainant.
7. If the complaints process fails to resolve the complaint or the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint the matter will be referred to an independent third party for review, at the request of the complainant. All costs incurred for the third-party review will be advised to the complainant.
8. Vigil Training College reserves the right to nominate or agree to the independent party and will cooperate fully with the independent third-party review.

Consumer Protection Officer

At Vigil Training College, the Training Manager will be appointed the Consumer Protection Officer. The Consumer Protection Officer will be the primary point of contact for all complaints and appeals.

The Training Manager may delegate responsibility for the resolution of the complaint and appeal if necessary. Vigil Training College will ensure that its staff and those acting on its behalf in accordance with the Vigil Training College's Code of Conduct and Appeals Policy.

MONITORING AND IMPROVEMENT

All complaints and appeals will be discussed at Management Meetings and/or in Continuous Improvement Meetings to identify potential causes of complaints or appeals, to discuss appropriate corrective action to eliminate or mitigate the likelihood of re-occurrence, and to identify an opportunity for continuous improvement of the processes.
